HE WILL GIVE YOU GRACE -- funeral sermon

The following contains one of the greatest Bible comfort verses for those who are in a time of grief.

2 CORINTHIANS 12:9 . . . "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness." (NKJV)

1. God's Grace is Sufficient for Us

(If the person who died was a believer) Share their testimony of how God's Grace was sufficient to save them, -to help them live for Christ, -and that it was powerful enough to take him/her all the way to heaven.

Paul spent a lot of time in prison, he was severely persecuted, he struggled like we do. But he learned about God's grace in his time of need. (Hebrews 4:16)

- Sufficient means it will always be enough for whatever we face.
- We never have to experience a shortage of grace.
- In this time when you feel you cannot make, remember -- with God's grace you can.

2. God's Strength is Available for Our Weakness

- It is in the very area of our deficit that we experience His surplus.
- When we are weak, He promises us to give us His strength.
- It is important to remember this in the days ahead when those waves of grief wash in upon you and you feel absolutely overwhelmed.
- Remember His strength is for YOUR weakness. He knows we are weak and cares when we struggle. His response--a gift of His strength. In the middle of your loss there is something you can gain -- the strength of God for your weakness.

3. God's Work will Be Completed in Us (Made perfect)

- In the time of grief we feel so distracted. We call it "coming apart."
- But God will put your future together in a way to fulfill His purposes.
- He gives His grace to that end

-(The person being honored) has now been made perfect because of the wonderful grace of God received through Christ.

-Life only makes sense when you realize there is a God in Heaven Who really is in charge and working all things together for good to those who love Him (Romans 8:28).

-It is grace that comes to us to work it together for good.

-God gives us grace to live by and grace to die by.
