

Published based on New Year's Joke for Preachers to Use

New Year's Joke for Preachers to Use

As you might know, it is not always easy to find a joke appropriate to share from the pulpit, especially on New Year's Day. I really thought the following one is really a good one.

A New Year's Gift

Jennifer was taking an afternoon nap so she would be able to be awake to see the New Year end later that night at the big party that had been planned.

After she woke up, she confided to Clayton, her husband, 'I just dreamed that you gave me a diamond ring for a New Year's present. What do you think it all means?'

'Wow, let me just say, you'll know tonight,' Clayton answered with a big smile.

At midnight, as the New Year was chiming in, and people left and right were kissing their sweethearts, Clayton approached Jennifer, kissed her while holding her a long time, then he handed her a small package.

Ecstatic and delighted, she opened it quickly.

There in her hand rested a book entitled: 'The meaning of dreams'.

You can also find this article published on New Year's Joke for Preachers to Use